

Certificate of Achievement

Christian Joshe De Guzman

has completed the following course:

Digital Skills: Digital Skills for Work and Life
Accenture

Digital technology touches almost every aspect of our lives, including work. This course explored the meaning of digital, how it has changed the way we work and how to build or grow a career in the digital age. It provided an overview of the different career paths available, highlighting the key skills that are more important today than ever before, in order to thrive in this digital environment.

script